

I am Dakshata M. Chaudhari - Khismatrao, a skilled and enthusiastic art educator currently serving as an Art Teacher at Marthoma Vidyapeeth School. With a solid academic background, including a Diploma in Art Teaching (ATD) from the prestigious Sir J.J. School of Arts, Mumbai, I have dedicated myself to fostering creativity and instilling a passion for art in students.

My teaching methodology focuses on hands-on learning and creative exploration, enabling students to refine their artistic skills while enhancing their confidence and critical thinking. Throughout my career, I have successfully led various creative initiatives, such as art workshops and events, including the highly praised Summer Camp 2023.

Recognized for my achievements in the art field, I have earned accolades such as 2nd Rank in the Kala Utsav Inter-State Competition (2018) and 3rd Rank in previous editions of the same competition, showcasing my commitment to artistic excellence and innovation.

Core Competencies:

Expertise in various art forms, including sketching, painting, craftwork, and jewelry making.

Proficiency in organizing and managing creative programs, competitions, and exhibitions.

Exceptional ability to inspire and connect with students, encouraging them to achieve their artistic potential.

Strong skills in classroom management and designing tailored curriculums to meet individual learning needs.

I am passionate about creating a positive and inclusive learning environment where students can discover their artistic talents and develop a lifelong appreciation for creativity and expression
