

Geeta Sapkal Profile Summary

I am an experienced and dedicated educator with a strong academic background in Marathi, holding both a BA and MA in Marathi, along with a B. Ed. in Marathi. Additionally, I have completed MSCIT certification and possess English typing skills (40 words/min).

Over the past five years, I have gained valuable experience teaching Marathi and Hindi across both primary and secondary sections, where I have worked to develop student's language skills, enhance their cultural understanding, and foster a positive learning environment. In addition to my language teaching experience.

I also specialize in handwriting training for both Hindi and Marathi. I take pride in helping students improve their handwriting, making it clear and legible, which is essential for effective communication.

My approach to teaching is a blend of traditional methods and modern tools, allowing me to engage students while ensuring a thorough understanding of the subject matter. With a passion for education and a commitment to my students' growth, I strive to create a classroom environment that encourages curiosity, discipline, and a love for learning. I am always eager to take on new challenges and
