

Vedavati Bhat is a passionate and dedicated primary school teacher with five years experience teaching Science and English 4th to 7th primary school students in KLE Practising Primary School, Ankola as a contract basis Teacher. With a passion for education and a dedication to excellence, Vedavati has been inspiring students to reach their full potential.

Vedavati holds a Bachelor Degree in BA with subject Education in the first class with Distinction from Karnataka University of Dharwad.

She holds a Diploma in Education with Science Methodology in Distinction from Primary Teachers Training Institute Ankola, Uttara Kannada (Karnataka).

She holds Diploma in Computer Teachers Training Course Certificate from Karnataka state electronics development Corporation Limited with Grade A. Earning Karnataka Teachers Eligibility Test (KARTET) Eligibility Certificate.

As a Science teacher, Vedavati is committed to creating an engaging and inclusive learning environment. She is known for excellence teaching in science theory and has a special talent for making complex concepts accessible to all.

Other than teaching Writing is Vedavati's hobby. She published 2 books in Kannada language. (One is story book and another is poetry book) Experienced in judging impartially in various cultural programs for children and women.

Stamp collection, coin collection, cooking, gardening and fashion designing and simple craft making are her hobbies.

She joined Marthoma Vidyapeeth in November 2024 with one year teaching experience in this school.